FEATURES

Recognition

Recognise and share great work from individuals and teams using virtual recognition cards, or save time with automated long-service and birthday recognitions.

Reward

Reward points can be spent on digital vouchers in the built-in reward catalogue with over 700 global brands to choose from.

Discounts & Savings

Want to help your workforce with the cost of living? Give them access to Rippl's huge discount voucher catalogue, including big savings on days out and activities.

Employee Benefits

Streamline your employee perks into one easy-to-access place. Host your existing benefits or take up our benefits in Cycle to Work, GP Helpline, Car Schemes and more.

Incentives

Build, launch and track bespoke incentive programmes to help motivate your people to achieve desired outcomes. Give rewards to your top performers.

Feedback & Surveys

Gain instant feedback from your colleagues on any topics that are relevant and important at the time, providing you with insight to inform business decisions.

Social Timeline

Where recognition and stories are shared, liked and commented on. Individuals and teams can share the great things they are doing with the wider community.

News Feed

Share important articles, announcements, blogs and interviews. Our in-house comms and engagement specialists can help with this if needed.

BENEFITS

Boost retention

Celebrating success with recognition and reward is proven to lower staff turnover, helping you retain top performers.

Be more flexible

Deploying ad-hoc enticing incentives help you become more agile when reacting to market and business needs.

Accelerate results

Running bespoke incentives gives your workforce autonomy to deliver your company's vision and goals.

Save money

Praise from peers is a powerful motivator, so mixing monetary reward with 'free' recognition can make budgets stretch further.

Save time

Say goodbye to endless spreadsheets and manual reward distribution with digital rewards and automated milestone recognition.

Communicate better

Slow, cascading information is a thing of the past with Rippl's app that allows you to reach everyone directly in a few clicks.
